Catholic School Embarks on Angelic Works

Jacksonville, Fla. (date) – San Jose Catholic School is teaming up with The Jacksonville Miracle League once again this baseball season for the league’s Angels in the Outfield Program and encouraging the Jacksonville community to be angels themselves and support.

The Angels in the Outfield program has been running every season since its beginning in 2007 allowing children with disabilities the opportunity to participate and play baseball on a specially designed field intended to accommodate to their needs. The program employs both child and adult volunteers as buddies during the season to help the players fulfill their dreams of participating in the sport.

The Angels in the Outfield program hosts a season of games beginning on (insert date) and ending on (insert date) with the games held on Fridays and Saturdays at the programs unique field, Field of Dreams located at the Jacksonville Baseball grounds.

San Jose Catholic School has been participating in the program for (insert amount of years) and providing the program with student and parent buddies during the season. The school also supports the program by encouraging their students, families and faculty members to attend the games and show support to the Jacksonville Miracle League program.

San Jose Catholic School is a great school located in the diocese of St. Augustine. The school is focused on not just the academics of their students but also that they make sure that when their students leave, they are well balanced individuals, encouraging their students and families to participate in community based events and volunteer opportunities.
